

Implicit-I Autonomy

Restricting, inhibiting, or unduly influencing people's choices. People are either directly denied the freedom to decide or are tricked into thinking that they are freely making choices when they are not.